

Performance Opportunities

While our main focus throughout the year is on training and technique, we offer many opportunities for our students to take the stage and put their skills to the test. There are performance opportunities for students at every age and level. Rehearsal and time commitments are important for ensuring a successful production. See the information below for more details.

	AGES	DATES	REHEARSAL EQUIRMENTS	AUDITION REQUIREMENTS	COSTS
PAC and Dance Companies*	7+	Full Year commitment with performance opportunities throughout, Including competitions, and revues.	Set weekly curriculum and rehearsal times as well as additional rehearsals close to show and competition dates.	Please call for more information.	Pricing varies by company. Multiple costumes will be Required.
ShowTime Performing	I 5-6 II 7-9 III 10+	Full Year commitment with one competition in addition to Year End Revue.	1 hour weekly class as well as additional rehearsals before competition	Director's Permission Required	Price of class plus 2 costumes.
Production Class	6-10	Commitment through the show in February 2012.	1 1/2 hour weekly class with additional rehearsal the week of the show.	None. Auditions will be held within the class	$500.00 Includes show T-Shirt & Script.
January Musicals Shows TBA	7+	January 27-29 2012	Wednesday evenings and Saturday afternoons during the fall semester. Additional rehearsals required in January.	Auditions: Please call for more information. Ensemble roles available.	$595.00 per student
Year End Revue	ALL	Show Date: Saturday, May 12, 2012	Dress Rehearsal: May 5th or 6th TBA *See Show Contract	All students perform in numbers from their respective classes. Students may choose any or all classes in which to participate in the YER.	Costumes: $90.00 per class

* Company members will perform featured roles in both the January musical and the Year End Revue. They may also be required to perform at competitions and at possible outreach venues.

 ShowTime Performing Classes participate in 1 competition in spring as well as the Year End Revue.

Please note: Any student who has committed to a performance and purchases a costume(s) will not be granted a refund for any reason.

AGE CUT OFF FOR CLASSES AND COMPANIES IS NOVEMBER 1.